Y. W. ROOF GARDEN PRESS CLUB NIGHT

Young Women Will Play Games on Housetop.

Plan Includes Tennis Court and Roller Skating Rink.

To rival the Winter Garden of New York is the intention of the Y. W. C. A. for next winter. By next fall if plans materialize work will be started on a "Roof Garden" for the Y. W. C. A. On the garden there will be a full sized tennis and basketball court. The floor is to be fixed so that roller skating can be accomplished. Indoor baseball, and practically every game that can be played on a surface 150 by 50 feet, will be provided for. It is possible that the gymnasium work will be given there also. It will be open during the entire year.

In addition to its athletic uses, the roof garden will be equipped with a movable stage so that amateur theatricals and exhibitions can be staged. A rest room and lounge place will also be provided.

It is estimated that the "Garden in the Air" will cost about $2,000 of this amount $200 already has been raised and ways and means to raise the remainder probably will be settled on this summer and next fall. It is planned to have a board floor, with a removable canvas covering for use in tennis and other sports. The materials for the walls and ceiling have not been decided on as yet, but they will be so constructed that in pleasant weather they can be entirely removed.

Thursday, June 1, will be the formal opening of the swimming pool. This feature of the Y. W. C. A. work is to be especially promoted this year. Swimming instruction will be given by Miss Kate Williams, who will be assisted by Miss Katherine Hand. Dr. William Malone and Dr. Dorothy Nicol have been appointed the official physicians for the season. "The water in the pool is as pure as that you drink," Miss Williams declared. "We have installed the latest type of 40-inch filter. Another feature of the pool equipment will be an electric hair dryer."

BOTH LOST MONEY

Verdict Is Rendered in Watermelon Case in District Court.

Under the terms of a verdict rendered in the second division of a district court today in a "watermelon case" every one connected with the case is loser.

C. B. Bruce of Verdun, Ok., who shipped a carload of watermelons to the Hayes Produce company of Topeka, loses only $9.50. But Eugene Hayes of the Hayes Produce company, loses $135.

August 1, 1914, Bruce wired Hayes that he had a carload of melons that he would sell for $135. Hayes wired back to ship over the Rock Island. The melons were shipped. Bruce drew a sight draft on the Hayes Produce company for the $135, took out the bill of lading in his own name and attached the draft and bill of lading together. The bill of lading was sent to Topeka by a circuitous route, reaching here August 6.

That evening, the evening of August 3 and Hayes saw them the morning of the 4th. Hayes says he found them in bad shape, that some of them were rotten and that others had been cut through the cracks in the car and whole sections removed. However, even before he saw the melons, on the 3rd, he had wired Bruce that he could not take the carload. When they finally arrived he could not return them to the Hayes Produce company because the bill of lading was not yet in Topeka. The melons remained on the track until the 6th when the bill of lading and Bruce arrived about the same time.

Bruce turned the melons over to George Christopher. The latter shipped them out and sold them in three different places for enough to pay the freight bills and other expenses. All except $9.50, the commission coming to Christopher.

In bringing suit against Hayes, Bruce did not ask for anything except the price agreed upon for the melons, $135. He was given judgment for the full amount. Hayes did not get the melons but must pay for them. Bruce got the melons but still owes money for selling them.

FROM A BALLOON

Anarchists Planned to Drop Bomb on Rockefeller Home.

Plot Disclosed by "Judas Iscariot" of the Gang.

DAVID CAPLAN IMPLICATED?

Alleged Dynamiter Denies He Was In on Scheme.

Bomb That Was To Be Used Exploded, Killing Makers.

San Francisco, May 23.—Special dispatches from Seattle, published here today, assume to throw new light on an alleged anarchist plot to assassinate John D. Rockefeller and to blow up his Tarrytown residence, although the time element in the story from the north is lacking. A former operative with the Burns detective agency is credited with these latest revelations, the motive for the publication of which also is not stated. The Seattle dispatch follows:

"In a remarkable statement published in a Seattle newspaper, Donald Vose Meserve, whom Emma Goldman branded as the 'Judas Iscariot' of the anarchists, and who, as an employee of the Burns detective agency, caused the arrest of M. A. Schmidt and David Caplan for participation in the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times, bares, for the first time, the details of a plan to assassinate John D. Rockefeller.

"The plot to kill Rockefeller, according to Meserve, was hatched by anarchists in New York, and was frustrated by the premature explosion of the bomb. Arthur Carron and two Poles known as Hanson and Berg, were the bomb makers. They were killed when the bomb exploded in their New York apartment."

According to Meserve, the plan was to sail over the home of Rockefeller at Tarrytown in a balloon and to drop a bomb which would destroy the magnificent home of the world's richest man.

Meserve says he went with a gang of anarchists to Tarrytown to spy out the land for the proposed plot and unwittingly in his role of ally to the plotters, purchased some of the dynamite which was used in the explosion. While the bomb makers were experimenting with the contrivance that it exploded.

Caplan Denies It.

Los Angeles, May 23.—David Caplan, alleged dynamiter, now in the county jail awaiting his second trial, entered a vigorous denial to the charges alleged to have been made in Seattle by Donald Vose Meserve, a Burns detective, that he was implicated in the assassination of John D. Rockefeller.

D. A. Valentine, clerk of the supreme court and one of the owners of the Clay Center Times, spoke on Thursday, June 1, will be the formal opening of the swimming pool. This feature of the Y. W. C. GETS T. R.'S O. K.

President of Riggs Bank Man of Highest Character.

Court Crowd Cheers Roosevelt, Voluntary Witness.

Washington, May 23.—Former President Theodore Roosevelt appeared on the witness stand today in the perjury trial of three officers of the National Bank. He testified as a character witness for President C. C. Glover of the bank, one of the indicted men.

Colonel Roosevelt said he had known Mr. Glover since 1889, that he had had business and social relations with the banker while civil service commissioner, assistant secretary of the navy, vice president and president. Mr. Glover's general character and standing in the District of Columbia, he added, were of the highest.

Colonel Roosevelt said he had come to Washington voluntarily to testify in the case. Colonel Roosevelt reached the court room ten minutes before the court convened. A crowd was waiting to see him and cheered loudly as he entered. Several times during his testimony the former president's answers aroused amusement.

Colonel Roosevelt said that while he first knew Mr. Glover in 1889 intimacy between them started five or six years later. Mr. Glover was often a guest at the White House and the Roosevelt children were often guests at the banker's summer home.

MAY BE A MURDER

Police of Seattle Search for Victim of Big Swindle.

Girl Found in Chicago Told Story of Affair.

FEARED WHITE SLAVE CHARGE

Man Who Posed as Father Gave Up $7,500.

Yarborough May Be Dead or Hiding in Canada.

Seattle, Wash., May 23.—Victim of an $8,000 swindle—possibly murdered by a white slave gang—Clifford Yarborough, Pulaski, Tenn., is the subject of a nation-wide search by federal secret service agents.

Yarborough, believed by the police to be hiding, possibly in Canada, under the impression that he is sought as a lawbreaker, is wanted to back up the story told by Eugenia Murray, a 16-year-old negro halfbreed girl.

The girl was picked up, wandering around in Chicago, in search of a supplicious sister. To the police she told a story which led to orders of Seattle agents of the department of justice to get on the track of Yarborough.

Gave Girl $500.

The girl's story is as follows: Early in February Yarborough and the girl arrived in Seattle. With Yarborough was $8,000 in cash. The two posed as father and daughter. In some manner Lee Francis Coyne, a Seattle horse trader, learned that the relations were fictitious. Aided by two accomplices, the girl says, Coyne, by threats of exposure, forced Yarborough to pay over $7,500 to escape arrest as a white slave.

As part of the bargain the girl was given $500 and a ticket to Chicago.

Yarborough then disappeared, accompanying the schemers to Victoria, B. C. The girl, however, found where she started a search for her sister. Failing to find her, she was picked up by the police and her story was told.

Killed or Hidden.

Local department of justice officials took up the matter at this end. They searched for Yarborough, with possible indications before reaching Victoria, or else was covered into going into hiding somewhere in Canada.
